FROM THE DESK OF FR. VITO
Greetings & Blessings dear friends and parishioners of St. Patrick's Church

It is with great joy that I witnessed the presence of over 200 parishioners at last Tuesday evening's meeting with the architect to look at proposed designs of our new church building. The strength of the meeting was not only the number in attendance, but above all, the comments, suggestions and concerns expressed. We will continue to turn to you as the project goes forth and the approvals are requested from both Archdiocese and Municipality. I have also received a few emails outlining comments and suggestions, and for these I am truly grateful. I want to reassure you that every comment made will indeed be taken into consideration by myself, the architect and the various professionals involved in the project. No comment will be discarded, whether it is possible to accomplish it or not. I can truly say that everything discussed, analyzed and critiqued will have an important role to play.

In the meantime, we continue to pray so that every step of this process will be blessed by God. I thank especially the many parishioners who have come forth to offer their active participation in the various committees that have been formed, and we look forward to more volunteers in what lies ahead. In the meantime I invite parishioners to share ideas, families to offer prayers and the community at large to journey forward blessed by the memory of those who have come before us leaving their mark in the beautiful community established in 1830, and the precious church building that has been housing us since 1894 and will continue to remain for many years to come, a testament to our faith.

May our Advent journey continue to bless us as we MAKE ROOM for the ONE who is to come.

With prayerful best wishes,
Fr. Vito
