FROM THE DESK OF FR. VITO

Greetings & Blessings dear friends and parishioners of St. Patrick's Church

Long before December 24 & 25, we exchange greetings of a Merry Christmas to everyone we meet. I pray that these wishes may always be translated into actions of care, love, commitment and prayer for family, friends, community and the world at large. This final week of preparation will undoubtedly be for all of us, a very hectic one. Let us make the best we can in putting some time aside for prayer. Our church is open all day for anyone wishing to come and spend a few moments before the Blessed Sacrament. When sitting down for dinner, a special prayer focusing on the coming of Jesus may be said, remembering that Christ came to Bethlehem, "House of Bread", and was laid in a "Manger," reminding us that he is truly our food and our life. In him and through him, may we continue to feed with love and care everyone who turns to us. May our Journey to Bethlehem, in this final week of preparation, be led by the voices of angels reminding us that God loves us, and by the brightness of the Star that is the Word of God, guiding us.

With prayerful best wishes,
Fr. Vito
