FROM THE DESK OF FR. VITO
Greetings & Blessings dear friends and parishioners of St. Patrick's Church

To all of you and to your loved ones, your neighbours and friends: GREETINGS OF A BLESSED CHRISTMAS AND A MOST HAPPY NEW YEAR. As Christmas Greetings are exchanged over these days and weeks, let us always keep in mind the true meaning of these festivities. CHRIST HAS COME (in Bethlehem); CHRIST WILL COME (one day in glory); CHRIST COMES (every day in our life). Like the Angels who announced the Good News, let us be messengers of God's love to everyone we meet. Like the shepherds who set out to meet the Christ, let us always look so that we may see and recognize him in the most unexpected ways. Like the Wise Men who set out from far away places, let us bring Jesus our hearts filled with love towards God and one another.

Thank you for being a "living Manger Scene", focused on Christ, praising his goodness, sharing our life and love with those around us, and our commitment and charity to many whom we do not see and yet we call "brothers and sisters" in Christ. May blessings be abundantly given to us so that we may joyfully share with many.

As we begin this new year, we will find ourselves involved in the beginning of our MAJOR CAMPAIGN for the building of the New Church. We will be knocking at your doors for help in this great task. As we plan to offer a "sacrificial gift", let us remember and pray for ourselves and generations to come who will find in this new place a welcoming smile from the Heart of Jesus. Each one of us will be invited to give according to their means and desires. There will be those who will only be able to offer prayers as they lack financial means to assist. Please note that prayers are the cement that keep the stones together.

Let us offer prayers, all of us, that the new church building will be a reminder not only to those who enter it, but also and above all to those who drive by, that our God has come and continues to dwell among us.

With prayerful best wishes,
Fr. Vito

a prayer for blessings at our christmas /
new year's table

Loving God, we thank you for the blessings of this Season.
We thank you for family and friends
Who gather to celebrate your love.
We pray for those who live these days
Away from loved ones.

Bless the meals we share together.
Help us to remember that Jesus is our true Food.
He is the Bread of Life, born in Bethlehem
(House of Bread).
He gives us the joy and duty to feed others
with love and care.

May our homes be always a place of welcome and peace.
A place where your presence is honoured,
Where your Word is spoken, heard and followed.

May the New Year bring peace to our world.
May we all be instruments of that peace.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PARTY CELEBRATIONS
Thursday, December 28

3:00 pm: For Altar Servers and members of The Children's Choir and their friends

7:30 pm: For all volunteers and ministers of the parish

Fr. Vito will provide pizzas and soft drinks for both events. Evening participants are invited (if they wish) to add an item of their choice (no pizzas) for a pot luck success!
