FROM THE DESK OF FR. VITO

Greetings & Blessings dear friends and parishioners of St. Patrick's Church

This past week, on Tuesday, October 23, I celebrated my 36th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. I was blessed in taking two and a-half days away and spend them in two separate cloistered monasteries just outside Montreal: the Monastery of the Sisters of Bethlehem, and the Monastery of Benedictine Nuns. Participating in their liturgies, and simply being present to absorb the Gregorian melody of chants and psalms, in the simplicity of their chapels, made it a moment of grace: a reminder of that day, thirty-six years ago. For this I give thanks. And, of course, I also had the opportunity of remembering and praying for the various communities that welcomed me as their priest. I thank you, here at St. Patrick's, for allowing me to continue my ministry in your midst, and, once again I renew my commitment today, as I did then, to serve you with both my gifts and my limits. Know that whatever your need may be, I will be here for you. I was also very pleased to learn that I share the same day of ordination (not the same year) as Fr. Marco Bagnarol. May the Lord continue to bless him in his ministry and may we all together pray that new vocations may be born in Church.

With prayerful best wishes.....Fr. Vito
