"Ask Jesus what he wants from you and be brave!"

Pope Francis

FROM THE DESK OF FR. VITO

Greetings parishioners and dear friends
of St. Patrick's Church

The Feast of Christ the King, marks the conclusion of another Liturgical Year and introduces the beginning of the New Year in the Liturgy, starting next week, with the First Sunday of Advent. It will be the Gospel of Matthew to guide us through most of the Sundays of the new year. The various gospels help us see Jesus from a variety of angles which the communities of Matthew, Mark and Luke were able to understand and embrace the Good News Jesus came to bring. The Gospel of John, of course is introduced at the different moments in each of these years. Along with the various insights into the person of Jesus offered us through the different gospels, there is also the personal encounter which Christ has with each one of us; an encounter that makes the Gospel tangible in our individual life and personal situations.

As we embark upon this new journey, let us understand more and more how each Christian is a living page of the Gospel and how this page may be read by everyone around us. As it was once said, "You may be the only page of Scripture your neighbour may ever read." Let this page of our life present to others the merciful and loving Jesus who came to us two thousand years ago, promised to remain with us every day of our life and will return again in Glory. In the meantime, let us pray that each day, each experience, becomes for all of us a new beginning to praise and glorify our God.

With prayerful best wishes.....Fr. Vito
