5 OCTOBER 2025 ■ 27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

The word of the Lord stands for ever; it is the Word given to you, the Good News.

First Letter of Saint Peter 1:25

Christian hope is not mere optimism, but the conviction that God's promises endure even in the darkest nights, and that His grace is present everywhere. Migrants, through their very existence, remind the Church of this truth. The plight of migrants and refugees who are transformed into missionaries of hope, highlights how people forced from their homes through war, injustice, climate crisis, or poverty can embody and convey hope.

Frank Cardinal Leo's message for the 111th World Day of Migrants and Refugees
